Amya signed a children's book at the Edinboro Kiwanis Club's February meeting. She and Ms. Kayla, who is doing an internship in Community Relations at Hermitage House, spoke to the Kiwanis members about our recent and upcoming Key Club events. They spoke extensively about the March for Life. Many kind Kiwanians sponsored this event.

Later in the day, Amya and Kayla also spoke to the Kiwanis Club of Cambridge Springs.

Leadership Training

Key Club members participate in monthly leadership training. Thus far, they have learned about the importance of being proactive and thinking win-win. April's workshop will be "Put First Things First." Many of the ideas come from The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens by Sean Covey.

Our four officers will be attending intensive training by Leadership Meadville on April 13th.

Key Club made "Lucky Shamrock" wall-hangings for St. Mary's Alzheimer's Unit.
